

Collas Crill's contentious trusts team shortlisted for STEP Private Client award

June 2019

Collas Crill has been shortlisted for Contentious Trusts & Estates Team of the Year (midsize firm) at the 2019/20 STEP Private Client Awards.

The STEP Private Client Awards are seen as the hallmark of quality within the private client industry, highlighting excellence and innovation among private client professionals worldwide.

Partner Christian Hay, who heads up the dispute resolution practice, said: "I am thrilled that we have been shortlisted again this year. Our contentious trust teams across the group are doing some outstanding work at the moment and it is very satisfying that this has been recognised by STEP and our peers. To be a finalist at the STEP Private Client Awards is undoubtedly a hallmark of success and so I congratulate all of those involved here at Collas Crill (and all of the other finalists across the various categories)."

Presiding Judges considered all entrants objectively and shortlisted teams as appropriate. The finalists are then considered by a panel of experts and their recommendations are returned to the Presiding Judges who meet to make their final decisions. These collective judgments draw on the judges' combined experience and knowledge of the industry.

The winners will be announced on 25 September 2019.
