

Collas Crill Jersey shortlisted for Leaders in WellBeing award

June 2019

Collas Crill's Jersey office has been shortlisted for the 'Giving Back Good Business' Award as part of the Leaders in WellBeing Summit & Awards 2019.

The Leaders in WellBeing Awards celebrate organisations, government departments, charities and practitioners who make health and wellbeing a core priority within their workplace and encourage a consistent, positive approach to the health and wellbeing of all employees.

Collas Crill were nominated by Silkworth Lodge, following the firm's support throughout 2017 and 2018. The 18 month partnership, which ended earlier this year, raised over £4000 for the charity which provides safe and caring residential rehabilitation treatment for people struggling with chemical dependency, as well as providing support for families who are also affected.

Dionne Gilbert, Partner and Head of CSR at Collas Crill Jersey, said: "In a world where figures and stats are the drivers for any business, this is a good moment to remind ourselves that our values and culture really do count and can make us stand out from the crowd."

The winners be will be announced at an Awards ceremony in Jersey on Friday 28 June.
