

Collas Crill shortlisted in Legal 500

October 2016

Following the release of its annual rankings, Legal 500 UK has shortlisted Collas Crill for 'Offshore Firm of the Year' as part of its 2017 awards programme.

As part of the rankings process, Legal 500 conducts more than 70,000 interviews with in-house counsel, law firms and sets in the UK to pin-point the most capable, expert practitioners and firms operating at the top of their game across a number of different business sectors.

Following the publication of the rankings, Legal 500 then reviewed which firms have impressed its research team over the past 12 months across a multitude of business sectors and practice areas.

The awards are unique in the legal industry as they recognise each element of the profession equally, representing the very best law firms, chambers, silks, in-house lawyers, business leaders and general counsel operating within the UK market.

Group Managing Partner, Jason Romer, said: "This shortlisting is reflective of both the hard work and dedication of our team as well as the sound endorsements from our clients which we value highly.

"This news follows our recently announced merger with BVI firm Farara Kerins that will extend our reach in the offshore market, demonstrating the rapid expansion of our firm."

The full shortlist is available here.

The winners will be announced next week and Legal 500 will host a free, exclusive dinner in central London next February for the winners to meet with each other, network and celebrate their success.
