

Collas Crill shortlisted for Offshore Firm of the Year award

November 2019

Collas Crill has been shortlisted in Legal 500's UK 2020 awards, Offshore: firm of the year category.

The awards will be held in February at a London venue, and follow the September release of the UK 2020 rankings that saw Collas Crill named as a top tier firm in three practice areas across its Guernsey and Jersey offices, with the BVI and Cayman teams also recognised a number of times in the recently released Caribbean rankings.

As well as departmental praise, a number of lawyers were mentioned individually within the rankings. Senior Partner Nuno Santos-Costa, Managing Partner Christian Hay and Partner Damian James also feature in the directory's Hall of Fame.

Group Managing Partner, Jason Romer said: 'Following on from the success in the latest editions of the UK and Caribbean rankings, it is really pleasing to see the firm shortlisted within this category.'

'A nomination like this is testament to how well we operate as one firm across markets and practice areas, something that is pivotal to our success and growth.'

'We have placed a great emphasis on building strength and depth in our established markets in 2019 and look forward to further developing this in 2020 and beyond.'

An industry research guide, Legal 500 collates its data via an independent research process involving client and peer interviews, as well as information from the firm itself.
