

Collas Crill's Digital and Marketing Executive shortlisted for Jersey Rising Stars award

June 2020

Collas Crill's Digital and Marketing Executive Chloe Withe has been shortlisted for the Marketing category of this year's Jersey Finance Rising Star Awards.

The Rising Stars Awards reward and recognise young talent within Jersey's financial centre and include categories across a number of professions.

Sophie Ferbrache, Associate Director of Business Development and Marketing, said: 'Chloe is a real asset to the firm. She has great intuition and a can-do attitude both of which are essential in a fast-paced field like ours. She is passionate about what she does and making the shortlist is great recognition of all the fantastic work that she does here at Collas Crill. Congratulations, Chloe.'

Chloe said: 'I am delighted to have been shortlisted for the Rising Star Awards. It's great to have been recognised among such a talented group of peers and I'd like to thank Jersey Finance for providing me with this amazing opportunity.'
